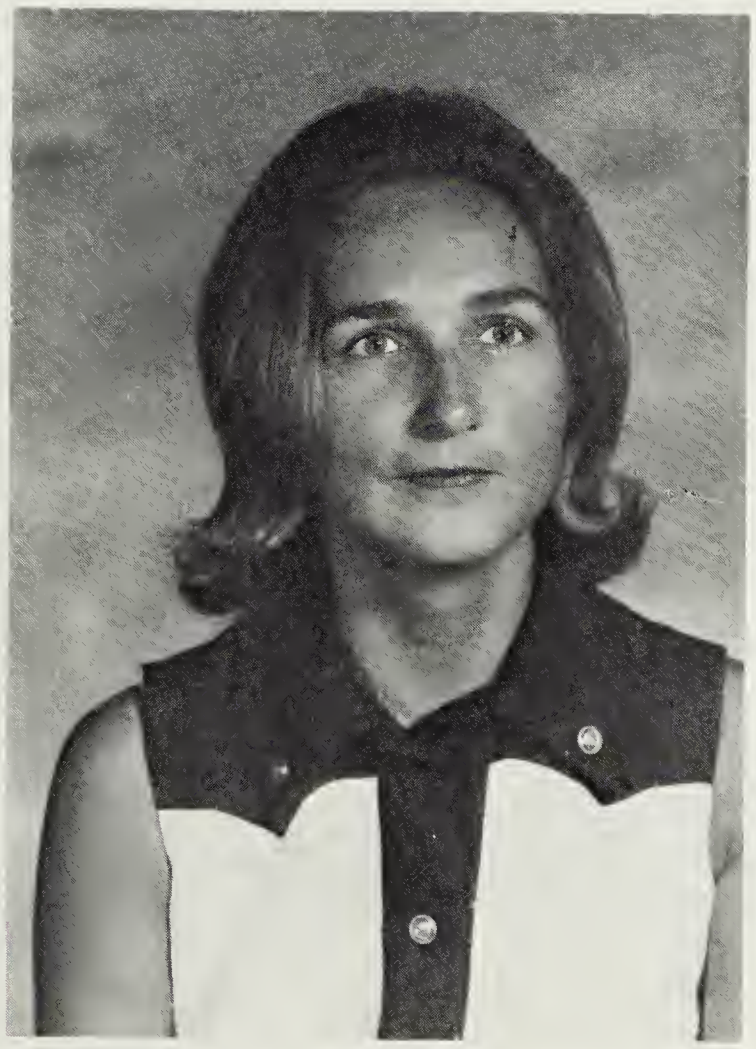
DEDICATION



BILLIE LOU BARNES

We, the Senior Class of 1975, dedicate this edition of the TRIDENT to Miss Billie Lou Barnes, our former sponsor and teacher.

Although she no longer teaches at Onancock High School, this yearbook is representative of our gratitude for and appreciation of the constant interest and commitment that Miss Barnes devoted to our class while she was here. She is best remembered for three things: her efforts in behalf of the 1974 Junior-Senior Prom, her teaching of students rather than subjects, and her concern for the use of the taxpayer's money. These are illustrations of Miss Barnes's regard for PEOPLE.

Our sincerest thanks to Miss Barnes for her special efforts making our past three years at OHS quite an experience!

ONANCOCK HIGH

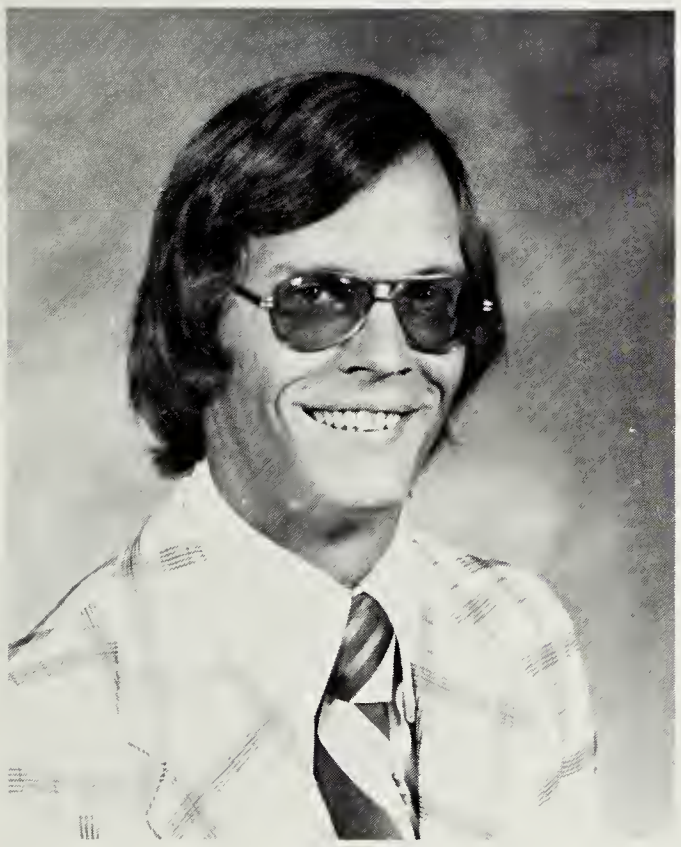
You must now realize that the time you have spent here has been, at best, a very short period in your lives. It is my sincere hope that they have been happy years and that you have experienced an educational and social attainment that will be of value to you the rest of your life.

Those of us who spend our lives in the field of education, find our greatest satisfaction in the privilege we have of working with so many fine young people. I can say with a great deal of pride that I shall always remember this class as rating among the nicest that has graduated from Onancock High School.

You take with you my best wishes for a prosperous and happy future.

Earl G. Hoppes
Principal

ADMINISTRATION



May happiness and success smile upon the class of 1975 in all that you attempt to do.

Richard Bull
Assistant Principal

This is the time in your lives that you feel that your educational careers are ending, but that is not true. You are just beginning.

In spite of the gloomy situations surrounding the world, you must always remember that man can be destroyed, but can never be defeated. Please dedicate yourselves to superior leadership at all times.

We shall miss you very much but we are expecting you to assume responsibilities wherever you are. The persons who get things accomplished in this world do not sit idly by; they do not complain that under different circumstances and given better opportunities, they would accomplish great things. Instead, they make the best possible adjustments to situations in which they find themselves.

Best wishes and warm regards to all of you for a successful life.

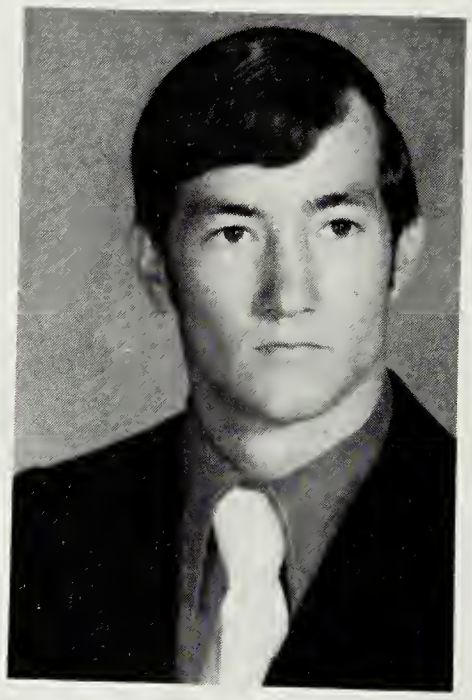
MEMORIAL



Martin Askew
(1955-1974)

No tribute of words can do justice to the life which Martin Askew lived. He was a friend to everyone in school, in our town, and on the Eastern Shore. He gave his best in all activities in which he participated. Love for his fellow man was written deep in his heart. He lived the Christian life before his world. His light was seen by the many who needed light. We know that Martin made this world a better place in which to live. We thank God for the blessing of Martin's life among us.

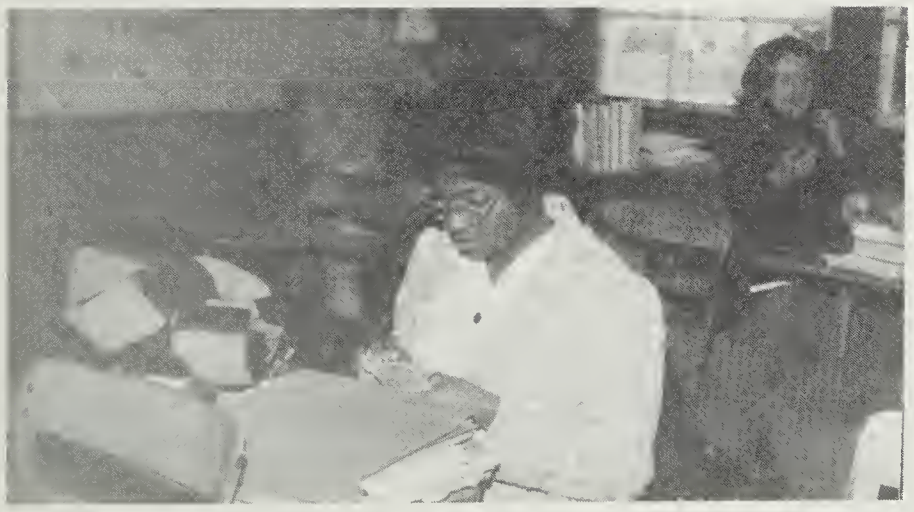
"If Ali can fight two, so can I."

"I try not to look at it."

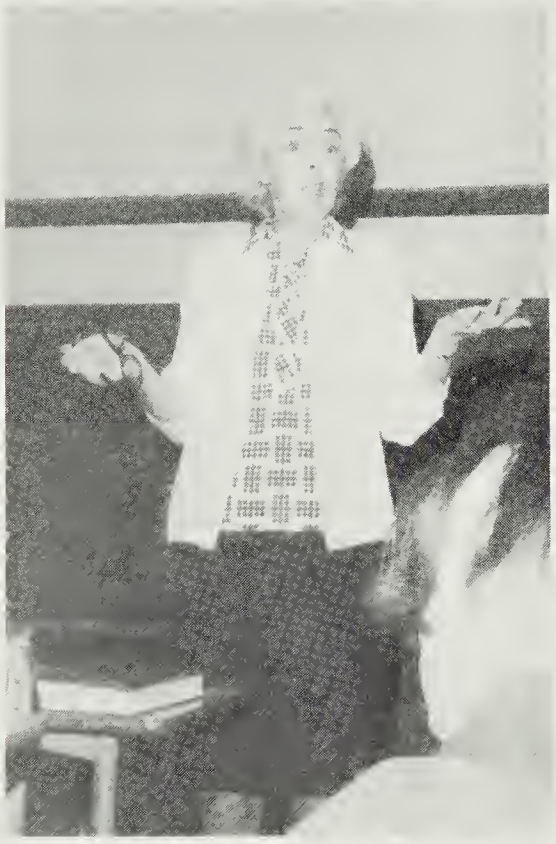


"This is enough to pass me for the semester."

"When we graduate, just think what they'll lose."

"It's about time they took my picture."

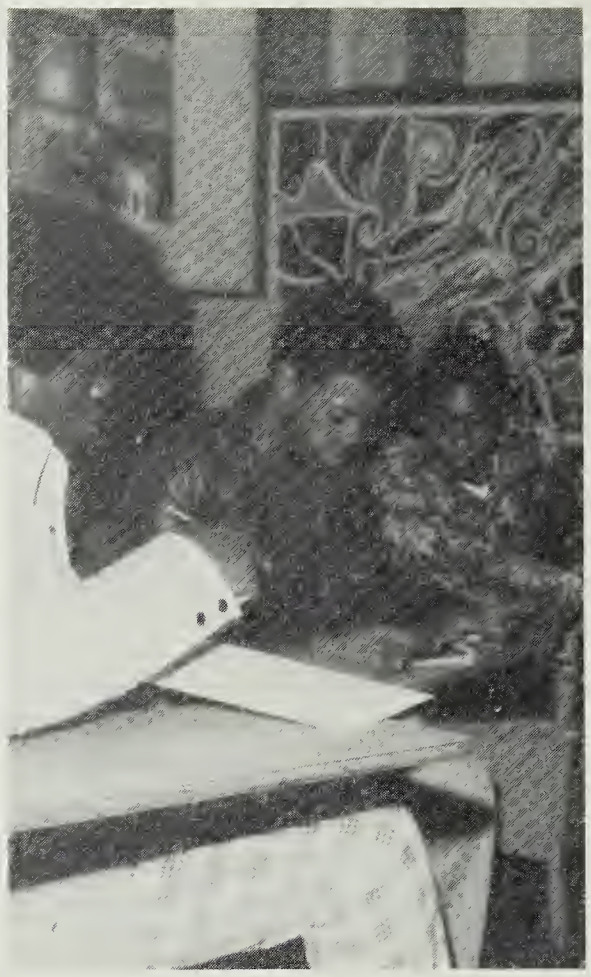
"Why do you boys work to support a car?"



"You might as well support a wife."

"I wonder if Einstein started like this."

Somebody's watching you, Cindy.

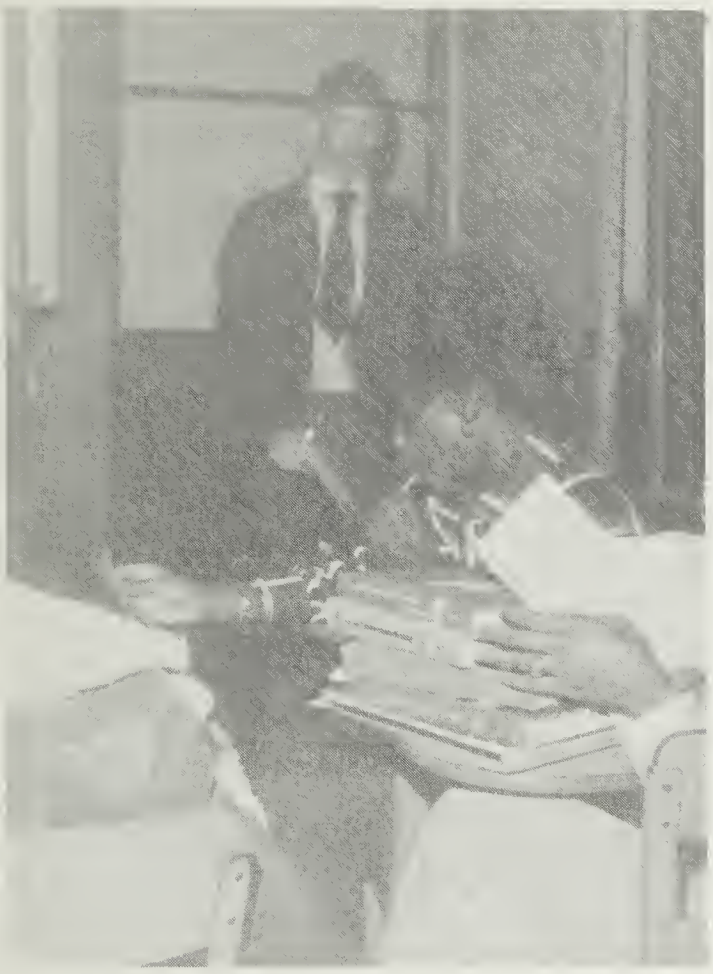


"Look at this. I got an 'A'."

"I'm so sick of school I could scream."

"I can't wait to get my 'Golden Memories Album'."

"Why are you looking at me like that?"



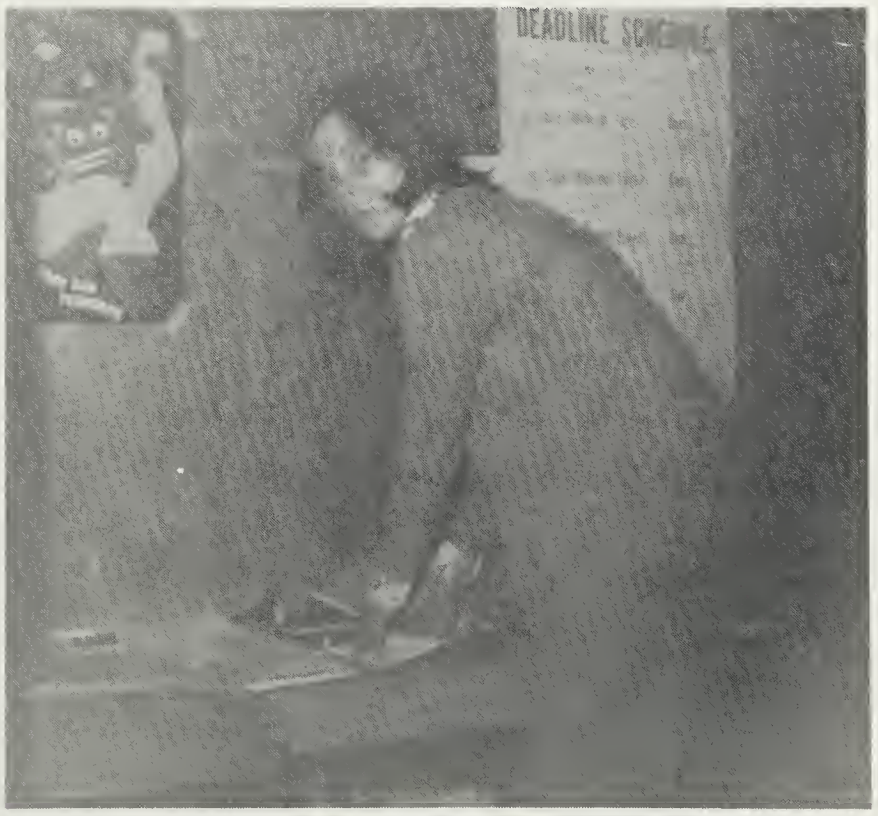
"I know it's wrong to eat in school, but . . ."

"My car does NOT look like a silver turtle."

"Look into my eyes."

"I wish I were still home in bed."

Cheer up, Debbie! Graduation is near.



"How dare you!!"

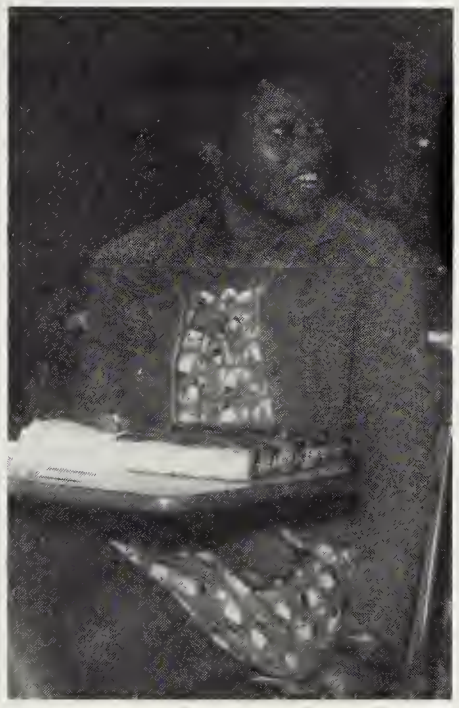
CHOIR

Where were you in '62'?



"Turn the lights back on."

"Frogdaddy and his women"

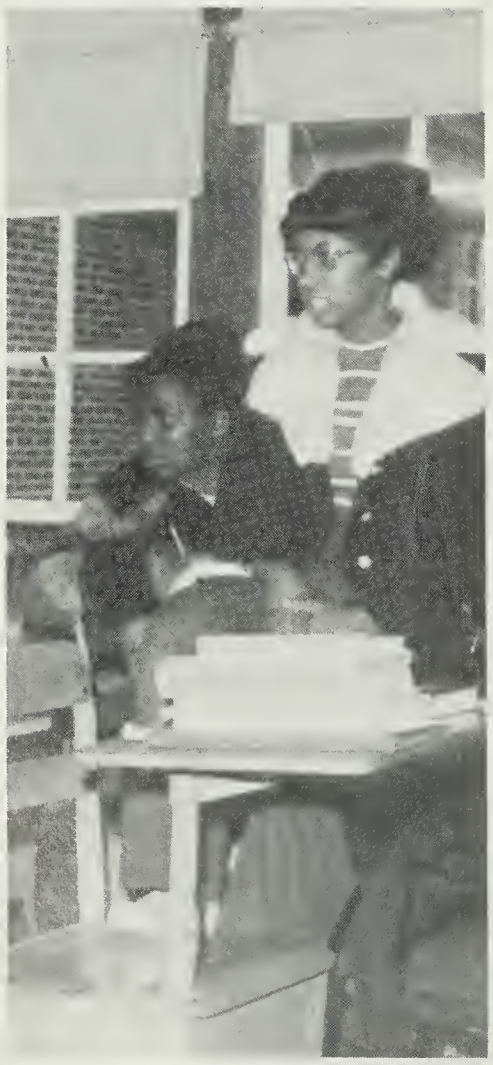
The next Meadowlark Lemon

"If you say one more word . . ."

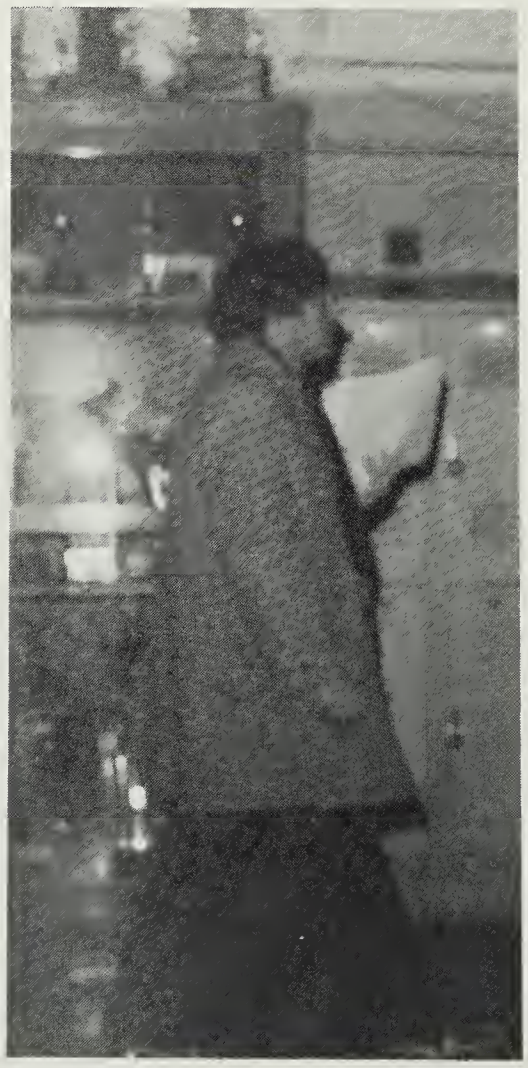
"Papa don't take no mess."

"What are you doing back here, Miss Fraunholtz?"

"I'm not hard to get along with."



"Look, a mouse!"



"These exams will kill them."

Butch Cassidy and the Sundance Kid.

Dr. Pease and Mr. Bailey.

Mrs. Mapp

Mr. Custis

"When I say 'jump,' jump!"

Can you imagine—being able to sit in the auditorium in the morning?

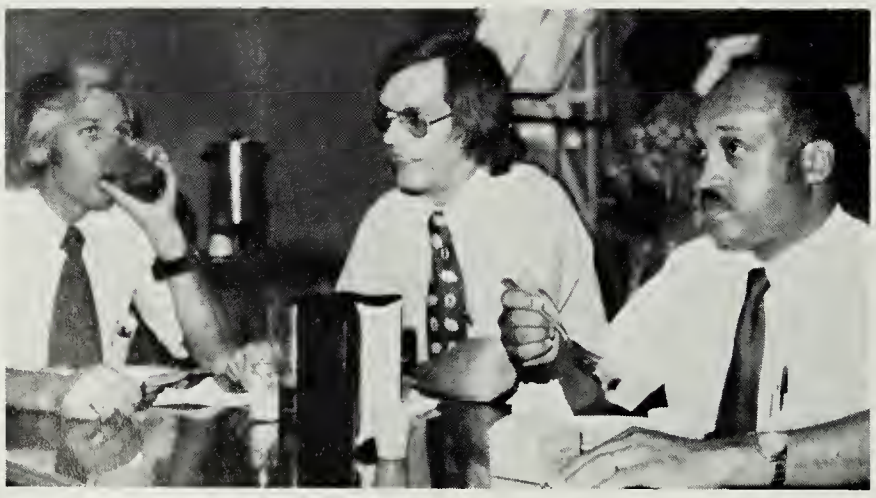
"Guess who called ME last night!"

"If she tries to give the test today, I'll get her with a poison dart."

"Hi, Mrs. Richardson."

Maxwell Smart and Agent 99

"She's my girl, Bill."



"I wish that we could go downtown for lunch."

"I hate eating alone."

"My socks itch."

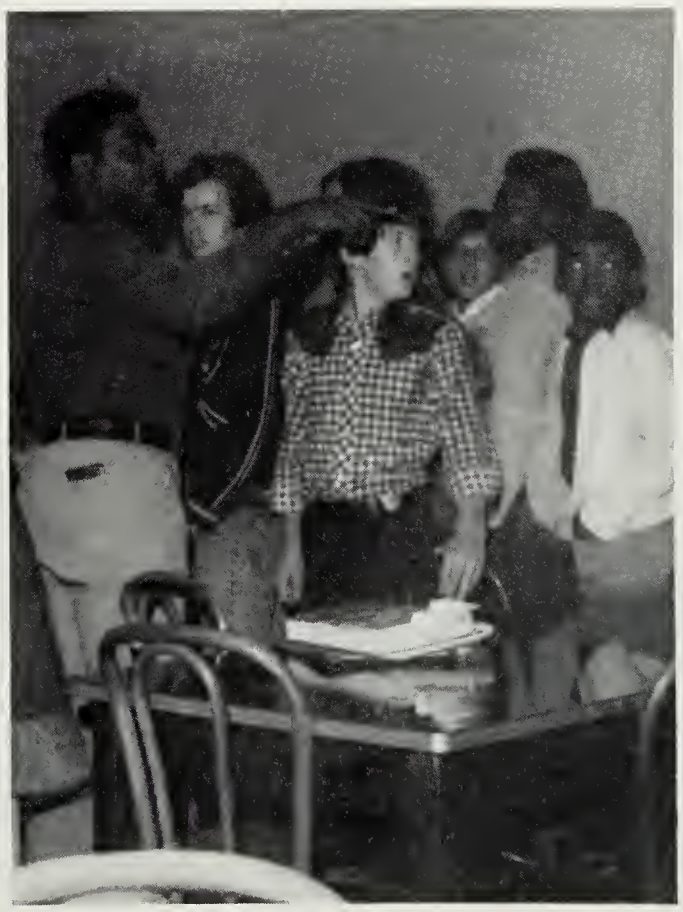
"Who took out the centerfold?"

"They are not the 'Deadskins'."

Brenda, you've got legs!

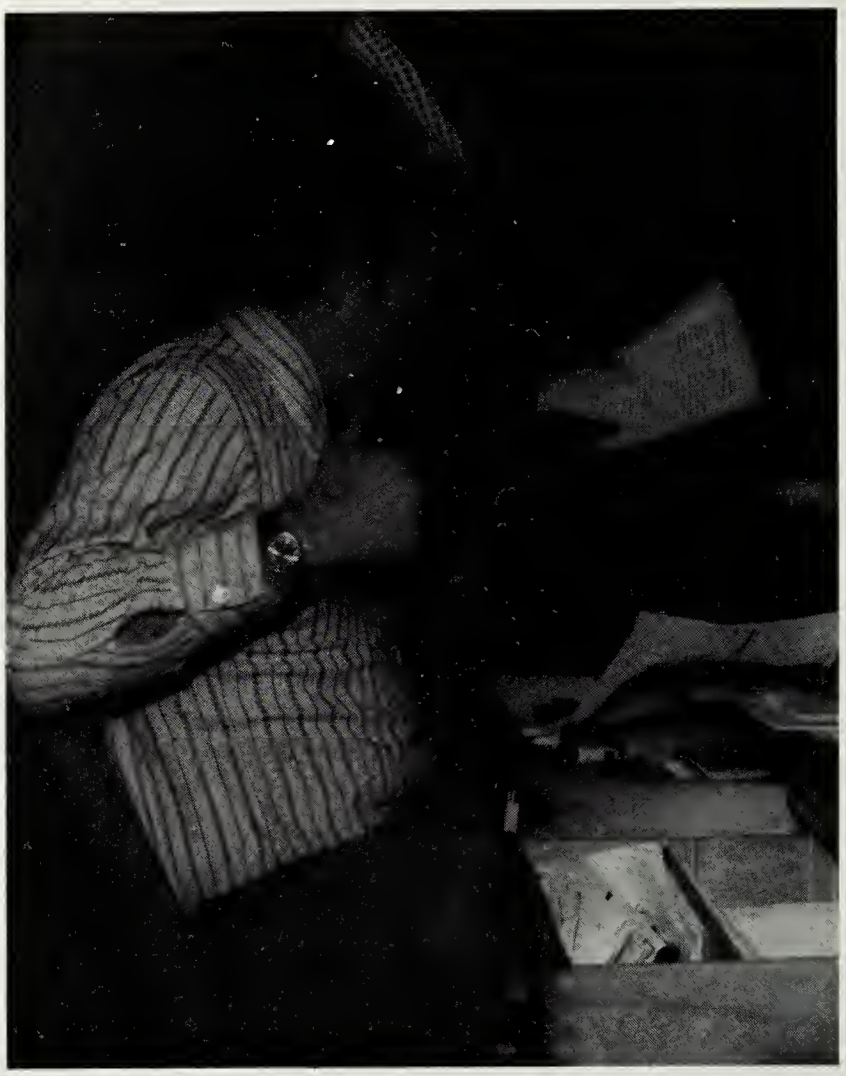
"I should clobber him with a two by four."

"Here comes Peter Cottontail—hopping down the bunny trail . . . "



Jesse takes charge.

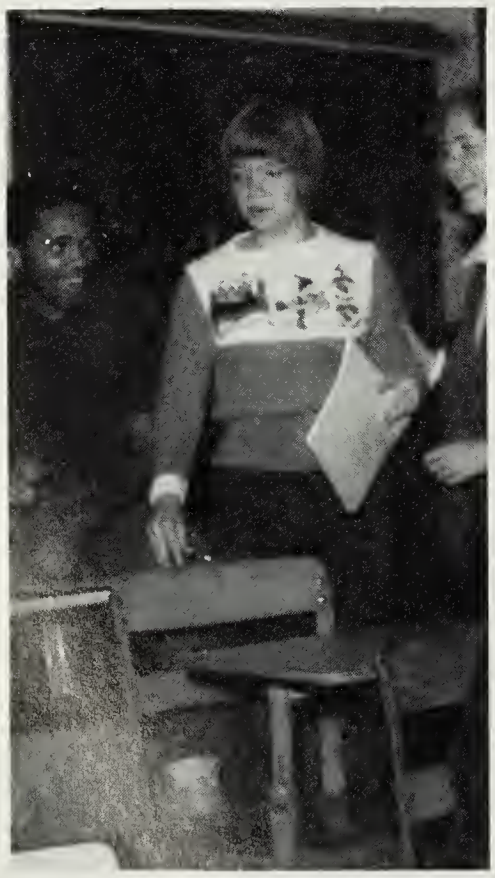
"It may seem hard at first, but . . . "



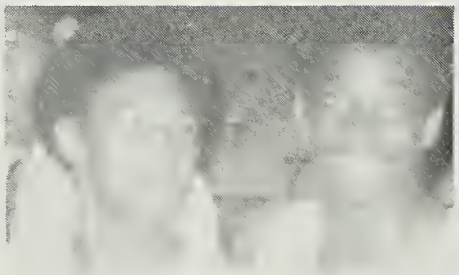
"Eek! A lizard!"

"What on earth is all that noise?"

"Why can't every day be this good?"



"Sometimes I just don't know what to think."



"I use Ultrabrite."

"Why should I care what DNA is?"

DOWNTOWN SALISBURY ASSOCIATION

THERE'S MORE OF EVERYTHING IN DOWNTOWN SALISBURY

Downtown Salisbury is the focal point of the Delmarva Peninsula's largest and most Progressive city. If the quest is for the selection of finest quality for all members of the family — Downtown Salisbury is your target. This is true for fashions, accessories, and fine footwear for ladies, men, boys and girls. Furniture and furnishings for the home are in abundance. Every facet of Banking, Legal and Medical professions are at hand. Food . . . from a snack to a full course meal is conveniently available. Parking facilities are conveniently located for your shopping pleasure. We're not modest — we're proud to say . . . there's more of everything in Downtown Salisbury.

BINGO -n- BONNIE

After many hours of thoughtful consideration and after much hard work, we, the 1975 Annual Staff, wish to thank you for giving us the opportunity to bring together the many facets which make Onancock High. Through this annual, my staff and I have tried to give you an annual of which you will be proud.

I would like to thank all of the members of the Annual Staff. especially Kenneth Chandler, Bonnie Matthews. Gordon Vincent, Karen Taylor, and Valerie Frazier for their invaluable help. This annual could not have been perfected without them.

We hope that this annual is a memorable one and that it will always remind you of 1975
